INTERNSHIP COMPLETION CERTIFICATE

18/03/2025

This is to certify that Parth Bramhecha has successfully completed an internship at CampusDekho.ai from 1/11/2024 to 1/02/2025.

During this tenure, he actively contributed to "Automated Data Extraction from MHT-CET & AI Seat-Matrix Files: A Computational Approach," "Python," "Data Analysis," etc.] demonstrating remarkable dedication, technical proficiency, and problem-solving skills. Parth exhibited the ability to grasp complex concepts, apply innovative solutions, and meet the project deadlines efficiently.

His contributions significantly impacted "Web Scraping Techniques for Extracting Seat Allocation Data from Career360 and JOSAA," "Structured Data Extraction from Educational Websites: Case Studies on MHT-CET, AI, and JOSAA", showcasing a proactive and results-driven approach.

We also extend our sincere appreciation to Mr. Ravi Murumkar Sir for providing invaluable guidance and mentorship throughout the internship, fostering a learning environment that helped shape Parth's professional growth. In recognition of his outstanding performance and commitment, we are confident that he will excel in future academic and professional endeavors.

We thank Parth for his invaluable contributions and wish him continued success.
